

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

We used to receive several calls a week and now we may receive one call a month or less and we like that. So don't change anything that would weaken this law.